

Commercial Product Stewardship Strategy:

Responsible, transparent and preferred partner, delivering value through compliant and sustainable products, meeting customers expectations and societal goals

Strategic Intent

Position Rio Tinto as a responsible partner, transparent and compliant supply chain through holistic engagement with customers

Create incremental value from responsibly sourced, sustainable materials, leveraging on sustainability indicators

Leverage Rio Tinto's partnership, to promote sustainable metal use, through sound science, regulatory advocacy and innovation

Critical Enablers

Successful Outcome

Market leader in full supply chain traceability and transparency

All products compliant with global regulatory requirements

Multi-metal brand pioneering innovation for low carbon and circular economy

Strategic partnership with key customers across the value chain

Recognised leader in sustainable, responsible sourcing / production practises through credible accreditations