

Community Giving application and guideline

The Community Giving program invites local grass-roots organisations to apply for up to $5,000 to support Western Australian communities where we work and live, including those neighbouring our operations and regional FIFO communities.

Our Focus Areas

Thriving communities

Supporting healthy, resilient communities with high quality, inclusive local services and social infrastructure, promoting wellbeing for all.

Environmental stewardship

Engaging our workforce in the protection of the environment. Protecting, restoring and promoting environmental conservation and stewardship.

Creating opportunities

Supporting diverse and sustainable local economies. Quality education and training opportunities for children and young people to reach their potential.

Walking together

Championing community-led initiatives to heal and resolve social issues. Supporting Aboriginal-led initiatives in line with self-determination.

Caring for Country

Supporting healing and cultural knowledge sharing. Provide ongoing access to and care of Country. Partnering to support rehabilitation, land management and closure.

Who can apply?

Local community groups, charitable or not-for-profit organisations delivering initiatives in communities where Rio Tinto Iron Ore and Dampier Salt Limited operate and have an impact, including across the Pilbara region, Perth, Great Southern, Mid West, South West, Broome and Derby.

How much can I apply for?

Each organisation can apply for a minimum of $500 to a maximum of $5,000 per calendar year.

What can we support?

Rio Tinto will support initiatives that provide benefit to communities where we live and work and are aligned with our focus areas. Application examples include but are not limited to;

- Capacity building for associations to upskill umpires, coaches, etc
- Community organisations to host events that promote community connection
- Community organisations to improve or expand their resources to support program delivery
- Awards evening focused on celebrating local 'champions'
- Costs towards an organisation hosting mental health workshops open to all community members
- Costs towards an engagement program for youth to have improved opportunities during the school holidays
- Materials to improve a community garden
- Equipment to support the improved day-to-day running of community organisations such as technology/ furniture
- Equipment to run projects on Country – i.e. laptops, satellite phone, shade structures
- Resources such as books, craft, cooking equipment to support for organisations that run programs engaging children outside of school hours
- Programs that support elderly and vulnerable community members
- Costs towards training for not-for-profit organisations such as social media, financial, marketing, advertising.

What can't be supported?

- Individuals or for-profit companies
